Blast Much Smaller Than Monday's

Reds Fire Another Nuclear Explosion

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP)—The Soviet Union today exploded another atomic device in the Novaya Zemlya area, the Uppsala University observatory reported.

Today's explosion was only a tenth as strong as Monday's superbomb blast which was estimated in the West at about 30 megatons—equivalent to 30 million tons of TNT.

Today's explosion was registered at Uppsala Seismological Institute, a spokesman said.

The blast tended to support a belief that the 50-megaton blast which Premier Khrushchev has promised is still to come. He told the Communist party congress in Moscow last week that the current Soviet test series would probably be concluded at the end of October with a blast of that size. The current series started Sept. 1 and today's explosion was the 23rd reported.

County Man Slays Wife, Tries Suicide

EAST LIVERPOOL — A 32-year-old man shot and fatally wounded his ex-wife and then tried to commit suicide yesterday, police reported.

Mrs. Nedra Newtz, 29, wounded in the head and left hand, died in City Hospital about an hour after she was shot in the yard at the home of a neighbor. Police said she was seeking refuge at the neighbor's home after her ex-husband threatened her during a quarrel at her home.

Ralph Newtz, the former husband, was found in the dining room of the Newtz home, where he had shot himself in the head with a .25-caliber automatic pistol, police reported. He was admitted to City Hospital in critical condition.

Driver Cited After Auto Leaves Road

Gerald Himmelrick, 19, of Weirton, W. Va., escaped with minor injuries when his car failed to negotiate a curve on Rt. 45, three miles north of Wellsville, at 6:15 p.m. Tuesday and smashed into some trees.

Himmelrick suffered abrasions of the ankle and head but did not require treatment.

The State Highway Patrol said Himmelrick, southbound on Rt. 45, first went off the right side of the road, then slid across to the left side into a wooded area. He was cited by the Patrol for excessive speed.

QUITS COUNTY POST

LISBON — Robert B. Clark of East Liverpool resigned as chief deputy of the clerk of courts of Columbiana County Finance Co. of East Liverpool. He has been chief deputy since Nov. 15, 1958.

Protests and demonstrations swept the Western world against the Soviets' detonation Monday of the powerful bomb.

Government leaders, scientists and newspapers expressed horror and shock at the blast. India's Prime Minister Nehru said he was "deeply pained and shocked."

The Russian people themselves were unaware of the explosion, not reported either by the Soviet government or press.

Council Maps Tax Renewal

New Expiration Date Is Question

City Council began preliminary work last night in preparing a new income tax ordinance which would go into effect when the current one-half of one per cent tax expires Dec. 31.

The legislators met last night with J. Emerson Davis, the Youngstown consultant who helped Council draw up its present income tax.

One important issue to be ironed out concerns whether the new income tax ordinance should specify how long it will be in effect, such as one, two or three years, or make no mention of an expiration date.

Council's plans are to give the income tax ordinance a first reading on Nov. 8, a second reading on Nov. 14 and the third and final reading on Nov. 21.

Since this ordinance is not going to be introduced as an emergency measure, as the present income tax measure was, it will not become effective until 30 days after passage.

So that the new ordinance can become effective as soon as the old one expires, Council must pass the measure before Dec. 1.

Indications are that the present tax will be renewed without opposition in Council.

Judge Seeks Ohio Attorney General Post

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A Youngstown judge has obtained petitions seeking qualification as a Democratic candidate for attorney general of Ohio.

Judge Harold Richert of Mahoning County Court is the potential candidate for nomination in the 1962 primary election. Harold L. Libby, Akron attorney who heads a committee backing Richert, obtained the petitions Tuesday from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown. This would be Richert's first attempt at statewide office.

Brown also sent petitions to a woman gubernatorial hopeful, Miss Anna Dubina of Canton. She too seeks nomination on the Democratic ticket. She said she has run in Canton for mayor, council president, councilwoman at large and the state senate.

Miss Dubina's address was listed as 1607 Hammond Ave. SW.

U.S. Officials Prepare To Detect Fallout

Too Early To Tell If It Will Create Hazard To Health

WASHINGTON (AP) — Public health authorities are geared to detect the first fallout in North America from the Soviet Union's massive nuclear explosion of Monday.

But they declared it is too early to forecast if it will create any significant health hazard either in the following few weeks or next spring.

May Bypass U.S.

A Weather Bureau scientist said it was possible the early fallout from Monday's test may even pass north of the continental United States in its first pass around the earth. It likely will extend over the entire nation in its second time around about 10 days later, he added.

There is a possibility, health officials said, that within the next month levels of radioactive iodine from the bomb debris might equal or exceed levels produced by the 21 previously announced tests in the current Soviet series.

It isn't known yet whether this cumulative total of fallout would constitute any significant hazard, said Dr. James Terrill of the Health Service in an interview.

Radioactive iodine is considered a threat because if enough of it got into a person's system, it could cause thyroid cancer.

To Be Delayed In Falling

Terrill said that most of the radioactive strontium—a potential cause of bone cancer—lost by the bomb will be delayed in falling until next spring. The strontium from the big blast will fall

Break In U.N. Membership Impasse Near

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Prospects brightened today for a break in the Security Council deadlock barring Mauritania and Outer Mongolia from membership in the United Nations. Nationalist China appeared to have abandoned its intention to veto the Mongolians.

A Nationalist spokesman said his delegation did not expect to get voting instructions until just before the council meeting this afternoon to consider the two membership applications. But reports from Taipei said Chiang Kai-Shek's government had reluctantly concluded it would have to change its hitherto rigid position and the Nationalist Parliament had given its tacit assent.

A double-barreled resolution covering both candidates was being considered to get around a dispute between the Soviet Union and the West over which application should get priority.

The Soviets have been insisting that Outer Mongolia be considered first. Then, if Mongolia was blocked by a Nationalist veto or failed to get the required seven approving votes, the Russians could retaliate by vetoing Mauritania.

Western delegates in turn were suspicious that the Russians, if they got Outer Mongolia accepted first, might then veto Mauritania to curry favor with Morocco, which claims the former French territory.

To get around this, some delegates suggested including the candidacies of both Mongolia and Mauritania in a single resolution. There would be a separate vote on each applicant, but if either failed to make the grade, both

Start Next July Anticipated

Overpass Project On 1962 Schedule

If all goes well, the city's West State St. overpass project may start July 1, 1962.

That's the estimated date of start of construction mentioned in the official confirmation from Congressman Wayne L. Hays of the $45,000 federal loan for engineering planning.

The loan, which previously had been approved by the Federal Housing and Home Agency in Chicago, was completed yesterday when the Community Facilities Administration in Washington informed Hays that funds have been assigned for the local project.

The cost of the entire project has been estimated at between $1 million and $1.3 million. State and federal funds would finance most of the work, with the railroad cooperating.

The city would be obligated to pay five per cent of the total cost of the project. Based on a $1.3 million estimate, the city's share would come to $65,000. This would include the $45,000 loan which has been granted.

Mayor Dean B. Cranmer stated that Columbiana County may pay part of the city's share of the project.

Rackoff Associates of Columbus, engineers for the project, will begin sub-surface testing at the Rt. 62 crossing site within 10 days.

The engineer's contract with the city calls for completion of the plans within nine months, exclusive of the time it takes the city and the state to review the plans. Surveys have shown that the Pennsylvania Railroad routes 33 trains a day through the city, causing frequent stoppage of vehicular traffic at the busy W. State St. crossing.

The overpass project is being assisted under the program of advances for public works planning, authorized by the Housing Act of 1954, as amended. This program provides interest-free advances for planning essential public works and community facilities. Advances are repayable on the start of construction.

2 Ordinances Are Approved

Fund Payment For Fire Chief Held OK

City Council passed two ordinances and gave first reading to two others at a special session Tuesday night at City Hall.

The two measures given final approval will do the following:

1. Have the city vacate the first alley south of Maple St.

2. Authorize the re-zoning of an area south of E. Pershing St. behind City Hospital from R-1 (single family residential) to R-2 (general residential).

Two ordinances given first reading last night would authorize the auditor to pay two damage claims filed against the city.

One of the claims, for $35, was filed by Mrs. C. S. Ringnell of 1040 N. Ellsworth Ave., for damage to trees at the rear of her lot. The trees were cut down by mistake by park department workers clearing land at Memorial Park.

The other claim for $211.78 was filed by Mrs. John Theiss of 929 Homewood Ave. for damage to a sewer

'Prank' Puts Truck Driver In Hospital

An ear of corn, hurled from a moving car on Alternate Rt. 14, northwest of Salem last night, smashed through the windshield of a bakery truck, sending its driver to a local hospital with lacerations of the face and head and foreign bodies in both eyes.

The truck driver, Ralph Snowden of Alexander, Ky., was treated at the Salem Central Clinic and released.

He told the State Highway Patrol that he was traveling south on Alternate Rt. 14, near the intersection of Rt. 165, at approximately 9 p.m. when the ear of corn was thrown at his truck from a northbound car which he was unable to identify.

Red Guards Turn Back 2 American Buses

G.I. Commander Halts Civilian Travel Into Red Sector

BERLIN (AP)—The U.S. Army insisted today on the right of civilian entry into East Berlin but then let the East German authorities turn back two U.S. Army sightseeing buses heading for the East sector.

East Berlin border guards stepped aside when armed U.S. military police escorted an American civilian car into the Communist sector.

A few hours later the guards refused entry to two U.S. Army sightseeing buses which had no armed escort.

The buses turned back to West Berlin near a spot where American tanks and armored personnel carriers were stationed with guns pointed at the East German police.

The East German police held up the buses carrying U.S. military personnel and civilians for more than an hour demanding that the officer in charge identify his passengers to authorities of the Communist East German regime. The American officer refused.

In an earlier incident the East Germans refused to allow two American civilians in an Army-licensed private car to pass through the checkpoint without identification. But the U.S. command ignored the East Germans and sent the car through with the armed escort in assertion of allied rights to free movement in Berlin.

Then, in a gesture of conciliation, the U.S. commander said it was temporarily restricting the passage of American civilian vehicles into East Berlin.

The announced American restriction on movements to East Berlin apparently applied only to civilian vehicles. The buses were U.S. Army vehicles carrying military personnel, although there were about 20 persons in civilian clothes, including two women, in the lead bus. The second bus had about six passengers in U.S. Air Force uniforms.

Both the United States and Britain moved tanks up to the border in a show of force during the day.

Ten U.S. Patton tanks and another armored personnel carrier rolled up to stations at the Friedrichstrasse crossing point, the only one open to allied personnel.

The British moved a second company of infantry, three Centurion tanks and supporting arms into the Tiergarten, a wooded area opposite the sector border near the Brandenburg Gate. The party of troops in the area and an

Downtown Traffic Count Under Way

Ohio Highway Department workers started a traffic count yesterday at Salem's downtown street intersections.

Highway department men are making a record of all traffic which passes through or turns at the intersections.

Purpose of the count is to enable the city to re-time its traffic lights to add "walk" signals, explains Mayor Dean Cranmer, who requested the survey.

The lights are now timed so that they take 80 seconds for one complete cycle. The study is being made to see if it would be best to have cycles of 100 seconds or 120 seconds if the walk signals are included.

The count is being taken for 24 hour periods at each intersection. Workers were to have completed the count at the Broadway - State St. intersection this afternoon.

The Doctor Says

By DR. H. T. HYMAN

Old Sayings Not Good Enough

Although I am a great admirer and lover of antiquities, there are some relics of the past that don't merit preservation. And some of these are "old sayings" that may be downright harmful.

Here are a few of these ancient saws concerning which I have had inquiries over the course of the past few months:

To ward off insects, especially if a baby has hay fever, wet a rag in kerosene and hang it on the end of the crib. (But what if pop smokes a pipe? And mom carries a lighted cigarette in her hand?)

Repeated use of baby oil clogs the infant's skin and prevents it from developing normally. (Oil lubricates. It doesn't clog.)

Daily use of mineral oil causes, or contributes to, cancer of the bowel. (Nonsense.)

Adding bath oils to water in the tub results in changes in the menstrual cycle. (Pish-tosh.)

Drinking cold water after eating bananas may produce a fatal indigestion (Fiddle-faddle.)

To prevent trouble when the child is cutting teeth, tie a dime around the youngster's neck. (Absurd.)

If a woman does home canning while she is menstruating, the batch will spoil. (Idiotic.)

Warts are caused by handling frogs. (Untrue.)

A bag containing asafetida, tied around a child's neck, wards off infectious diseases. (But better be immunized.)

A blow on a woman's breast may later cause cancer. (But what woman, with or without cancer, has not suffered an occasional blow on that very vulnerable area?)

Drinking whisky is an antidote to snake poisoning. (But what effect has it on pink elephants?)

Drinking water with meals is a cause of obesity. (And will weight loss result if one eats the same meals without the water?)

I don't suppose this completes the list. But, if more come along, I'll file them and pass them along from time to time.

State Constitutional Issues

Although most attention is properly focused on local issues and candidates in this year's general elections, four proposals to amend the Ohio Constitution should not be overlooked by the voter preparing himself to make informed decisions on Nov. 7.

The four state issues were placed on the ballot by the 104th General Assembly after considerable study in committees and approval by three-fifths majorities in both houses.

Two are of immediate importance to the operation of Ohio's government and two would pave the way for action that would be vital if the nation, state or local governments were faced with a national emergency. We believe all four amendments should be approved.

Issue No. 1

An amendment approved by Ohioans in 1956 established four-year terms for state senators. This amendment would provide a way to fill vacancies, if they occur, in those terms.

The need for such a provision was illustrated last year when a number of four-year senators resigned to run for other offices. Considerable confusion arose over how to protect the representation rights of the people in their districts and some of the confusion never was resolved.

The solution proposed in this amendment would give the senators of the same party as the resigned or deceased elected member the right to appoint his successor. If the vacancy occurred in the first 20 months of the term, the appointment would be for the remainder of the first two years of term and a successor would be elected for the last two years. If the vacancy occurred in the 21st month or later, the appointment would be for the rest of the full term.

It is always difficult to find a satisfactory way to fill vacancies in elected offices, and this proposal may raise objections that the appointive power should rest in the senatorial district, rather than in the Senate itself.

But there is no guarantee that that system would work better than this one, especially since this one has not been tried. If use shows weakness in the plan, it can be changed.

In the meantime, it is important that a method be enacted for filling vacancies and protecting the representation rights of Ohio's citizens in their legislature.

Issue No. 2

This is commonly called the "continuity of government" amendment. It authorizes the General Assembly to make plans for moving the seats of state and local governments and defining the succession of powers if the state were hit in an enemy attack.

Recommended by national Civil Defense officials, similar amendments have been adopted in many other states.

The need for such a provision arises, of course, from the vastly greater dangers inherent in the era of nuclear war potential. It is well-recognized by this time that the best chance of surviving a nuclear holocaust depends upon preparation to keep chaos to a minimum.

This amendment would give the General Assembly the authority to make preparations to keep governmental chaos to a minimum if an attack ever comes.

Issue No. 3

This amendment can be considered a companion to Issue No. 2. It provides for technical modernization of ground rules governing the state's militia.

The militia, also known as the Ohio Defense Corps, is a skeleton organization, except when the Ohio National Guard is called to active federal duty, as it was during World War II and the Korean War.

When the Ohio National Guard is on duty elsewhere, the militia is the home defense organization for the state.

This amendment would increase the age limits for service in the militia to 17 to 67 (it is now 18 to 45). The purpose is twofold: to open the way for more persons to volunteer for duty and to enable the militia to use the services of retired officers of the regular army.

Other changes would allow women to serve, remove antiquated language which in effect required all Ohioans (18 to 45) to be enrolled in the militia and define the powers of the governor over the militia.

Many of the changes merely give constitutional authority to practices that have been used for many years.

Issue No. 4

The Ohio Senate was stunned to learn from the Ohio Supreme Court during the recent session that it had no authority to require the governor to submit his appointments to the Senate for its confirmation.

This amendment would take care of that situation by writing the authority into the Constitution, legalizing a practice that had been in use without dissent for more than 150 years.

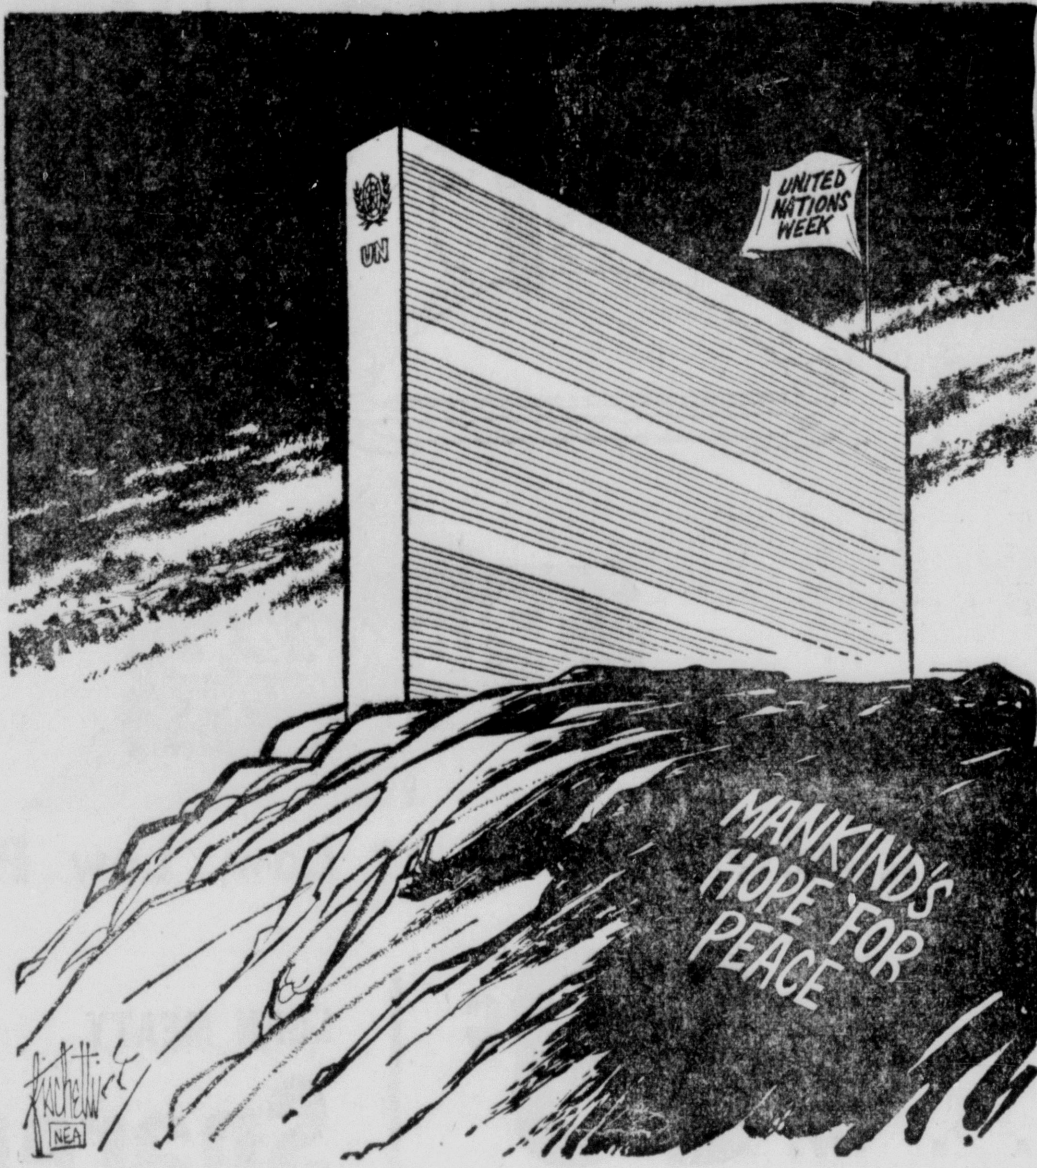

It would allow the Legislature to state in law which appointments must be confirmed by the Senate and would automatically validate all other such laws now on the books.

It would require the Senate to act on appointments instead of just shelving those it did not like, because any appointment not acted on before legislative adjournment would be considered acceptable.

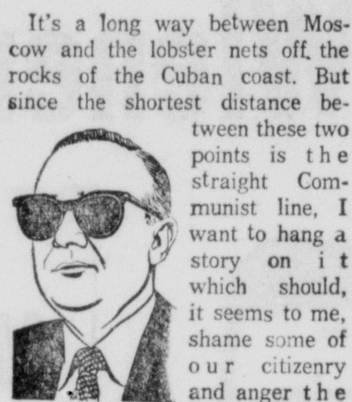

The new amendment would apply only to appointments made in the future. The appointments by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle over which the legal controversy arose would not be affected.

The power of the Senate to "advise and consent" is time-honored in the American system of government, as it has been in Ohio even without specific constitutional provision. That provision should now be made, even if it is 150 years late.

A House Built on Rock

Inside Labor By Victor Riesel

Victor Riesel

It's a long way between Moscow and the lobster nets off the rocks of the Cuban coast. But since the shortest distance between these two points is the straight Communist line, I want to hang a story on it which should, it seems to me, shame some of our citizenry and anger the rest. That is if we still have a capacity for indignation. This starts with word I've received from Moscow that one of the most enthusiastic fraternal delegates to the Soviet's 22nd Party Congress is Cuba's Blas Roca.

He's second to none in jumping to his feet, stomping and applauding the Russian chairman during the sharpest attacks on the western democracies in general and the United States in particular. Roca, according to well documented evidence, officially swung the Cuban Communist Party to Fidel Castro three years ago in a move which brought the bearded one out of the mountains and into the Presidential Palace in Havana.

This, Blas Roca did at a secret meeting on the island of Jamaica when he conferred in mid-August 1953 with a small band of Castro agents. Remember, this was some 4½ months before the Fidelistas came to power. Their rendezvous resulted in what is known among Latin experts as the "Jamaica Pact."

THOUGH THIS WAS a meeting between the Castro envoys and the Cuban Communist Party, Castro had long been working with the "Comintern" — the international Communist apparatus.

It is not generally known, but the Soviet subversion tactic is a two-fold operation. There is an underground "rep" (representative) who passes secret orders on from the Comintern center in Prague to the Castro-type of nationalist rebels in any land. And there is the official Communist Party which appears to be holding aloof from such seemingly independent revolutionists.

Fidel Castro long had been taking orders from the Prague underground. These were passed on by the Comintern rep to his brother Raoul, and to "Che" Guevara and Osvaldo Dorticos, now Cuba's president. In August 1953 it became apparent to all insiders that soon blow up like an Algerian café.

Word was dispatched from the underground Comintern rep to both Castro and the overt Cuban Communist Party leadership that they were to get together officially. A secret meeting was arranged in nearby Jamaica. Blas Roca headed the Communist group.

THEY MADE their pact with Castro during a long discussion in which they carved U.S. interests with the salivary delight of a gourmet at you know where on Paris' left bank. Then Castro's men went back to the hills and Blas Roca slipped back into Havana with the signal for sabotage.

Now Roca is in Moscow cheering the type of totalitarian station which is garroting Cuba despite its literal theft of a billion dollars worth of U.S. property and about as much in property seized from the Cuban people themselves.

By this time, Roca's party is more powerful than the grimly pathetic Castro. Satellite-ism in Havana can survive only by huge economic transfusions from Russia — which has little to spare — or by moving back again into the U.S. market. If Cuba can get our dollars it can buy, cash in advance, what it needs. And it needs our kind of "sugar" as much as its own.

But you might think, then, that trade with us is impossible after the executions, the insults, the mass thievery and the use of Cuba as a base for Soviet-softening operations in Latin America. But you're wrong. It's happening. Cuba is moving back into the U.S. market. Slowly, but enough like the proverbial tortoise to make your hair stand on end.

AT THE MOMENT Cuba is selling $5 million worth of foodstuffs in the United States. This is in addition to its $25 million worth of tobacco — which I'm told is necessary here to keep 6,000 men at work. But the $5 million is just the beginning of Cuba's new trade drive in the United States.

Cuba is readying a small fleet of tramp steamers and goletas (schooners) to begin saturating the United States with such new produce as the can of rock lobsters now resting on my desk. This sea food was "packed by the Conservas Punta De Cartas, S.A., Pinar Del Rio." This is an area in which the greatest number of anti-Communist fighters were rather cruelly destroyed.

Yet Cuba is receiving American dollars. There is no way to stop this. Why? Because there is not, and there has never been a ban on imports of any kind in any amount from this Soviet satellite. Cuba is being permitted to begin rebuilding its "business-as-usual" in the United States. Doesn't anybody care?

'Gilpatric Speech Proves Arms Buildup by Ike

Sometimes it takes months for facts — even though reassuring — to permeate the consciousness of the American people. Maybe it's because the facts aren't properly launched in the first place.

An important speech was made last Saturday night by Roswell L. Gilpatric, deputy secretary of defense.

It was "cleared for publication" by the President of the United States, which means he made the decision that its contents should be broadcast to the world. Secretary of State Rusk said on Sunday that he went over the speech with Mr. Gilpatric before it was made and that the speech "served a very useful purpose."

Actually, the President himself should have made the announcement contained in the speech. It then would have attracted worldwide attention. His reluctance to do so probably stemmed from a fear that it might be regarded as "saber rattling," though there is much less reason nowadays to be concerned with such niceties in the face of Premier Khrushchev's numerous outbursts and threats.

Mr. Gilpatric's speech is the first statement of the true military power of the United States that has been issued in recent years. It was released at this time undoubtedly to impress the Soviet Union, but one wonders how many misconceptions of American military power have been allowed to form in Khrushchev's mind heretofore because he never was told the facts or because some politicians in America sought to draw the picture of a weak America.

MR. GILPATRIC'S carefully chosen words are truly startling. He says:

"The United States has today hundreds of manned intercontinental bombers capable of reaching the Soviet Union, including 600 heavy bombers and many more medium bombers equally capable of intercontinental operations because of our highly developed in-flight refueling techniques and worldwide base structure."

This is a lot of information packed into a single paragraph, but it is accompanied by facts even more meaningful:

"The United States also has six Polaris submarines at sea carrying a total of 96 missiles, and dozens of intercontinental ballistic missiles. Our carrier strike forces (naval aircraft carriers) and land-based theater forces (overseas air bases) could deliver additional hundreds of megatons."

"The total number of our nuclear delivery vehicles, tactical as well as strategic, is in the tens of thousands; and, of course, we have more than one warhead for each vehicle."

From Our Readers

Favors 'Home Rule'

The only issue, apparently, in the forthcoming election is the proposed city charter.

At present we are pretty well tied up by state laws. This gives us very little to say in how we want to run our local affairs, a condition almost impossible to change.

Under the proposed charter, we will have far greater "home rule." Things we do not like can be changed by initiative or referendum elections anytime. Also, the charter is set up for revision every 10 years.

I will be the first to grant that neither system is perfect and that changes for betterment could be made in each. However, the big question is do we want the state to run our programs or do we want to run them. I feel that every candidate should go on public record as to which kind of government they favor for Salem. Carl H. Juergens, 420 N. Broadway.

Kiwanians Say 'Thank You'

Now that the summer season has come to a close, the Kiwanis Club wishes to publicly express thanks to those who have assisted us in the flower basket program for downtown Salem.

To the men of the Senior Citizens group we are sincerely grateful for their efforts over last winter in repainting all the baskets and for their almost daily early morning watering of the baskets.

To Gilbert's Greenhouse our appreciation for the planting assistance and several fertilizer applications after the baskets were up.

To the Police Department for the safe and convenient storage of our water pump used by the Senior Citizen men and to the merchants who made available water refills along the route. Kiwanis Club of Salem

These phrases are from the vocabulary of military men but, in a nutshell, they say that America has bombs and missiles of a most destructive kind, and the means of delivering them. Mr. Gilpatric goes on to say:

"Our forces are so deployed and protected that a sneak attack could not effectively disarm us. The destructive power which the United States could bring to bear even after a Soviet surprise attack upon our forces would be as great as — perhaps greater than — the total undamaged force which the enemy can threaten to launch against the United States in a first strike."

"In short, we have a second strike capability which is at least as extensive as what the Soviets can deliver by striking first. Therefore, we are confident that the Soviets will not provoke a major nuclear conflict."

THAT STATEMENT means that, if the Soviet Union strikes first, it cannot hope to destroy our power to strike back. When America does strike back, its power of destruction is so great that it will be more devastating in the damage inflicted on Soviet Russia and her people than the first blow against the United States would be.

This is the first time any such information has been divulged by officials of the United States government. It confirms the famous phrase of the late secretary of state, John Foster Dulles, when he made a speech a few years ago predicting "massive retaliation" if the Soviets attacked.

He was derided by "left wing" critics and appeasers and others who thought it was impolite to tell the Soviets what would happen if they struck the first blow. It was the pooh-poohing of this warning in many quarters which may have stimulated Mr. Khrushchev's militant behavior in world politics.

Now it comes out — Americans need not be so terrified as so many have been that the "first blow" would be fatal and that it might be better to appease the Soviets after all.

THE DISCLOSURE is a significant move in the "cold war." It should have a sobering effect in Moscow.

But it does make one wonder how much political benefit was unfairly derived in the last presidential campaign by those who cried "missile gap" and otherwise deprecated America's military strength. For unquestionably the military power of the United States could not possibly have been built up to such awesome proportions since Jan. 20, 1961, when Mr. Kennedy was inaugurated.

Most of it must have accomplished sometime during the two terms of President Dwight Eisenhower and with the $350 billion of tax money furnished by the American people for defense in those eight years. At last, the "information gap" has been closed.

Hospital Drive-way Dilemma

It has been my experience that when one approaches the entrance and exit to Salem City hospital in a car, at times one is confronted with a dilemma as to which is the drive-way. This is particularly true when approaching from the east. It is especially disconcerting at night or when driving in a fog and facing a line of traffic with a huge truck riding on one's rear bumper.

Being aware of the fact that other visitors to the hospital have experienced this same difficulty, the following suggestion is being offered:

That a red reflector of sufficient size be erected on each side of the exit and an amber reflector on each side of the entrance drive. In my humble opinion this a distinguished service to the public.

Phil C. Elsass,
East Palestine.

Fall Brings Driving Hazards

Some of us hate to be reminded of it, but Daylight Saving time ends Sunday. Darkness will come quicker on the fall scenery and for the first few days next week we'll think we're late for dinner as we rush home.

Earlier darkness brings dangers to motorists and pedestrians, but safety suggestions offered by our local automobile club ought to help. For instance:

- (1) When walking at night, wear something light or carry a newspaper so that you may be seen. On rural roads, walk facing traffic.
- (2) When driving, be alert for pedestrians, especially youngsters crossing streets at dusk. Keep your windshield clean and reduce your speed at night.

Winter driving also brings another hazard: Carbon monoxide fumes, a colorless, odorless, tasteless gas that is expelled by the automobile exhaust system. Before you realize what's happening you get drowsy and begin to doze at the wheel. If the gas itself doesn't kill, the resulting crash might finish the job.

Several basic safety rules to cut down the danger of carbon monoxide poisoning are listed by the American Medical Association.

- (1) Leave at least one window open slightly, even on bitterly cold days. If there is leakage of gas, the fresh air will dispel most of it.
- (2) Keep the front vents closed when driving in bumper-to-bumper traffic. Your vent can suck in exhaust fumes from the car ahead of you.
- (3) If you park for more than a minute or two with the motor running, open a window several inches. Wide open is safer.

Most important is to make certain that exhaust, muffler and manifold are tight and free of leaks. It is worth a few dollars to a mechanic to guard against gas poisoning.

Once Over

As Oliver Wendell Holmes might put it if he happened to be around today:

Man needs but little here below;
A cave down 20 feet or so,
(A subterranean space
To hide out from the human race);
Preceded by tips by the ton
On how to build a proper one.

II
No single plan do I request—
Two dozen will suffice at best;
From Sears Roebuck and U.S.A.
With which my architect can play;
(No dream-cave will attract my eye...
A six-room hole will satisfy!)

III
To live for years I do not seek—
Give me assurance week by week!
From bombs atomic (Satan's brew)
And Khrushchev's loud "I'll bury you"
I do not ask for life in style—
But just to live a little while.

IV
A breakfast battle with the wife
About a spot to save her life;
A taxi to the railroad line
And cabby's views on cave design;
Opinions on the train to town
About the depth I SHOULD DIG DOWN

By H. I. Phillips

V
A day in which there seem to loom
Predictions of impending doom;
Then home, this inquiry to get:
"Have you our shelter chosen yet?"
"The Abercrombys — Sue and Eddie—
"Are down 10 feet or more already!"

VI
TV calls for "full speed ahead
With shelter plans" . . . and so to bed;
A night in which we toss and roll
Imagining we are a MOLE . . .
(One thought about our cave is clear
Our tranquilizers must be near!)

Quite a row has been started in various parts of land by medical journal article by doctor who says house calls are "as outdated as the horse and buggy," and should not be expected. "They're financially unsound and medically unwise, the doctor writes, with scornful reference to old time doctor "pictured as stumbling through the snow to save a life."

Growing tendency against house calls has been arousing wide criticism, but the medical journal article has stirred real storm. Horse and buggy doctor was a pretty valiant, self-sacrificing figure and the "No house calls" attitude would have bowled him over. He would not stumble through snow to save a life but do his best to scale a peak in a blizzard to help sick.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm writing about your spunky answer to the woman whose sister-in-law wanted to move the TV set into the dining room. You said meal time should be family time and that it takes ingenuity and imagination to keep a good conversation going.

You closed with, "It's no challenge to sit glued to the idiot box and watch anything that moves."

I'd like to inform you, Ann Landers, that after 12 years of marriage and 10 years of television I'd much rather look at the idiot box than listen to that idiot who calls herself a wife. And I'll wager this is why 90 per cent of the men I know watch so darned much TV.—LATE LATE SHOW.

Dear Late Late: I'd like to pose a single question to you, and to the 90 per cent to whom you so blithely refer:
Who picked these idiots?

Stands by Opinion

Dear Readers: Some educators, and even a larger number of mothers, have written to say I was wrong when I told a woman she should not be upset because her child missed getting into the kindergarten class by a few weeks. I told her it is better for the child to start a little late than a little early.

I'm sticking to my original position.

Those who wrote to complain gave examples of exceptionally bright children who became bored because the educational fare offered no challenge.

I repeat: My advice is for the average child.

If a parent believes his youngster is exceptional, he should have the child's IQ tested. Such tests at the very least can provide useful clues and school authorities usually are delighted to make special arrangements for the gifted child.

A research study by the Illinois Association for Childhood Education compared fifth graders and found the late starters generally did far better regardless of mental abilities.

Specialists who deal with problem children agree that the bright youngster who is placed with older (but duller children) often develops emotional problems.

Dinner for the Boss

Dear Ann: I have invited my husband's boss and his wife to dinner at our home next month. We've had dinner at their home twice and of course they have the best of everything.

We are just a young couple starting out and our dishes and linen and silver are average. I'm a good cook, however, and I know I can prepare a tasty meal.

The problem is that my husband wants me to borrow silver and dishes, and even knick-knacks and pictures, from my mother. She has beautiful things and he is eager to impress the boss.

I say this is wrong. He says many people do it. What is your opinion?—Q.T.

Dear Q.T.: I'm sure many people do it. They are called phonies.

It's permissible to borrow when you don't have enough silver or dishes to serve all the guests but borrowing to create the illusion of wealth is fakery.

Tell your foolish husband that the boss knows how much he's making. The way to "impress" him is to turn in a sterling performance on the job.

NEW YORK (AP)—"After Billy Bob clumb the nar lath of the far tar, he was too tard to fix his flat tar."

Do you find it hard to understand that sentence? If you do, you probably haven't been to the Ozark Mountains recently, and it's time you went there and re-freshed your knowledge of the queen's English—the English of the first Elizabeth with crown.

But the meaning is clear even to most Midwest flatland hill-billies:

"After William Robert climbed the narrow ladder of the fire tower, he was too tired to repair his flat tire."

For the millions of Americans who would like to travel through the Southern Highlands and understand what is said to them, Dale Freeman of the Springfield (Mo.) News and Leader, has compiled a guide he calls "How to talk pure Ozark in one easy lesson."

SAVE AS MUCH AS 70% ON YOUR DRY CLEANING

Dear Mrs. Housewife:

Are you interested in saving as much as 70% of your dry cleaning cost? Would you like to take the drapes from your windows, have them dry cleaned in fifty minutes and rehang them without pressing? If so I'm sure you'll want to continue reading about the R.C.A. Whirlpool Coin Operated Dry Cleaning Machines now in operation at Timberlanes in Salem.

This dry cleaning department, which has been named LANESIDE is located in the east section of the Timberlanes building and has its own entrance directly from the free parking lot. It can also be reached from any other part of the building. There is an attendant on duty from 8:30 AM until 10 PM daily, including Sunday, to give help and advice when needed.

The Whirlpool Dry Cleaning Machines will handle an eight pound load of garments, drapes, blankets, slip covers, etc. at a cost of only $2.00. Many persons use a bathroom or baby scale to weigh the clothes at home, but there are scales in LANESIDE for your use. The following will give you an idea of typical loads which have actually been run here:

1. 14 Ladies Sweaters.
2. 10 Skirts and 2 Ladies Sweaters.
3. 1 Ladies Suit, 5 Skirts, Child's Coat, 1 pr. Slacks.
4. 5 Prs. Boy's Pants, 2 Boy's Sweaters, 1 Man's Sweater, 2 Ladies Sweaters.
5. 4 Men's Suits.
6. 2 Prs. of Drapes and 1 Chair Cover.

EXAMPLE AT LEAST 50c Here 14 Sweaters $2.00 ANYWHERE

Probably you will be interested in the answers to two of the questions we have been asked most often...

WHAT ABOUT PRESSING? All items come from the machines practically wrinkle-free and require no pressing at all or a little touch-up at most IF THEY ARE PLACED ON HANGERS AS SOON AS THE CYCLE IS COMPLETED! Our attendant will take care of this for you if you cannot be on hand at the necessary time.

WHAT ABOUT "MIXED" LOADS? Any combination of fabrics as well as light and dark colors can be cleaned together without danger of discoloration. The problem of lint deposits must be considered, however, and brushing some articles after cleaning may be necessary with a mixed load.

Please feel free to visit LANESIDE and observe the Whirlpool Dry Cleaning Machines in operation any time. There will always be an attendant on hand to answer any questions you might have.

A SEASON OF MISTS by Honor Tracy. A perennial bachelor falls in love with his very young secretary. When the characters are as zany as those Miss Tracy can dream up, this is bound to be a mild beginning for an improbable but very funny tale.

DAUGHTERS IN LAW by Henry Cecil. Imagine the consternation of an Englishman named Buttontop, who hates lawyers, being told by his two sons that each of them is anxious to marry - and that each of the prospective daughters-in-law is a lawyer.

GOOD-BYE, DOCTOR ROCHE by Andre Soubiran. A young doctor becomes medical director in a French mental hospital. He finds to his horror that conditions are only a little better than at Dachau concentration camp where he had been imprisoned. His efforts to better conditions and his relations with staff and patients form the background for a powerful novel.

THE SERPENT'S BITE by Christine Anthony. The wife of a wealthy manufacturer meets again her lover of twenty five years before - and only after this does she realize how empty those years have been.

THE HOUSE AT OLD VINE by Norah Loftis. Another of the historical novels which Norah Loftis does so well. This one continues the story of Martin Reed, whom we heard quite a bit about in The Town House.

THE AMIABLE MEDDLERS by Josephine Lawrence. Two middle-aged spinsters who try to help everyone they know who is in any sort of trouble.

Mystery: COUNSEL FOR THE DEFENSE by Jeffrey Ashford. An English solicitor has to defend the crook who is holding his daughter as a hostage.

NON-FICTION: BISHOP'S WIFE - BUT STILL MYSELF by Cicely Williams. Unlike candidate for the wife of a bishop, for she adores sports, especially mountain climbing, and hates wearing hats, and is prone to loud laughter when a muse. Her reminiscences are gay and entertaining, but not coy.

BLUEPRINTS FOR INDEPENDENCE by Dr. R. C. Winter. Constituting instruments of new nations which have gained their independence between the end of World War II and 1959. Most useful for reference.

OCCUPATIONAL PLANNING FOR WOMEN by Marguerite Wykoff Zapoleon. A lot about what vocational guidance is, how it should be used, organizations which can assist women already out of school.

THE BACKWARD SOCIETY by Raymond Frost. An economist with the World Bank writes how and why we should help the backward nations, and how we can do it.

TEACH YOURSELF BOTANY by John H. Elliott. In this little handbook, botany is made as simple as possible for home study.

YOU CAN TRUST THE COMMUNISTS by Dr. Fred Schwarz. The author defines very clearly the differences between Communist and Democratic definitions of such words as "peace" and "love", he explains how Communists are recruited and trained, and how they seize and hold power. He is very blunt in his description of what we must do if we expect to combat them successfully.

ANTHROPOLOGY MADE SIMPLE by John Lewis. Another in the popular, usable paper bound series for study at home.

THE ART OF DECISION MAKING by Joseph D. Cooper. The author provides a basic understanding of the decision-making process for any person with executive responsibilities.

William H. Weir, Salem wallpaper and paint store proprietor whose hobbies are lecturing and acting, is being credited as one of the stars of the Youngstown Players' current production, "Roar Like a Dove."

The play isn't actually a comedy but some scenes in which Mr. Weir appears are hilarious, according to persons who saw the opening performances.

"Roar Like a Dove" will be repeated every night this week at the Playhouse, with a 2:30 matinee scheduled Sunday.

Weir, who is Tom Chadwick in the production, is making his first major appearance at the Playhouse, although he has had previous minor roles and has had experience with the former Salem Players Club and the current Tri-County Players group at Sebring.

United Teachers and PTA Endorse Nov. 7 Bond Issue

The United Teachers Association of United Local School District and the Parent-Teachers Association committee have gone on record supporting the school district's $250,000 bond issue to be voted on at the Nov. 7 general election.

The 50 teachers also endorsed the site for the proposed new elementary building, which is to be built directly opposite the present buildings on State Route 9 north of Hanoverton.

The teachers' resolution, signed by their president, Richard Stoffer, and the other instructors read in part:

"As a professional organization, we fully realize that better teaching is done in classes of 30 students or less. At the present time we have 15 classrooms of 35 to 45 students each. The present 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade classes, which are extremely over-loaded, will continue this way until more room is made available. Each year an additional grade will be likewise affected.

Secondly, we need an expanded high school curriculum to prepare our students to adequately meet the challenge of college and the problems of living today. Our high school curriculum will continue to be limited until more room is available.

Thirdly, we endorse the selection of the proposed site. Educators will agree that primary children will have the best opportunity to develop when they are able to work and play away from the influence of older and larger children. These are the formative years when they will develop habits, attitudes, and ideals which they will carry with them through life. As our school grows in the future, the building can be expanded to include the intermediate grades, which will give us an excellent elementary program."

The citizens committee named by the United PTA to study the proposed school bond proposal also has given its endorsement.

The committee, composed of Ernest K. Moser, C. Delmar Read and Richard T. Speidel, gave strong support to the site which is on ground already owned by the school board.

Berlin

British normally maintain a com- army spokesman called the reinforcements precautionary.

The French dispatched a military patrol of eight men to set up an observation post at the Gensundbrunnen elevated railroad station overlooking the Communist sector.

Travelers from East Berlin reported the East German police had wheeled up a water cannon and a small armored car to within about 300 yards of the border. The water cannon, a favorite weapon of the Reds on the border, can spit out a powerful jet of water, capable of knocking a man off his feet.

A spokesman for Watson said persons in civilian clothes driving in Army-licensed vehicles had been asked not to pass through the Friedrichstrasse checkpoint, the only entrance to East Berlin open to Allied personnel.

"We are seeking an incident-free period to permit the U.S. commandant in Berlin and the Soviet commandant to discuss this complicated situation," the spokesman said.

Watson reportedly asked for an appointment with the Soviet commandant in East Berlin, Col. Andrei I. Solovyev.

The demonstration of U.S. determination occurred shortly before 11 a.m.

The three U.S. military police jeeps escorted the private car through the zig-zag barrier erected at the checkpoint, drove past the East German police (Vopos) and went on into East Berlin, without stopping to show papers.

The convoy went about two blocks, wheeled around and returned. The East Germans did not interfere.

It was the second time this week that American troops had entered East Berlin to escort U.S. civilians defying the Communist requirement that they show their identity papers to the East German police when entering the Soviet sector. Allied personnel have been instructed to ignore the order because the Allies do not recognize the East German regime and also claim the right of free movement through all of Berlin for their garrison personnel, both military and civilian.

On Sunday night the East German police halted E. Allan Lightner Jr., deputy chief of the U.S. mission in Berlin, and his wife when they refused to show their papers while on their way to an East Berlin theater. A detachment of U. S. MPs escorted them through the border point.

"We are seeking an incident-free period to permit the U.S. through the border point.

September Living Costs Set New High

WASHINGTON (AP) — Higher prices for new fall lines of clothing pushed living costs to a record high in September.

The Labor Department reported today that its index rose two-tenths of 1 per cent between August and September to 128.3 per cent of the 1947-49 base period.

Clothing prices, rising more than seasonally, were up 1.1 per cent from the late-summer bargains of August.

Robert J. Myers, deputy commissioner of labor statistics, said another slight rise is expected in October. But he emphasized that the price level has remained unusually stable and is expected to continue to register little change from month to month.

"We see nothing in the picture that appears to suggest a take-off to substantially higher price levels," Myers told a news conference.

The index standing of 128.3 in September compares with the previous record of 128.1 in July. For August, it was 128.

Fallout

with the strontium remaining in the stratosphere from other tests in the series.

It remains to be seen whether the strontium from all tests would constitute any widespread hazard, Terrill said.

"It should be borne in mind, however," he added, "that even the present or expected levels of both strontium and iodine are and will be producing some adverse health effects in small portions of large population groups throughout the world."

Terrill said standards had been worked out—differing for various kinds of radioactive materials—to guide officials in considering protective countermeasures.

For example, the maximum standard for radioactive iodine is a daily intake of 100 micro-microcuries per day over a year's time. The standard for strontium is 200. A micro-microcurie is a measurement of radioactivity.

Terrill said the Health Service just can't say how much fallout will come down quickly from Monday's heavy weight test, or how much will be delayed until next spring.

One reason, he said, is that the Health Service does not know how dirty the bomb was in terms of radioactive fallout.

Rail Executives Air Problems Before Governors

NEW YORK (AP)—A panel of governors was told today Eastern railroads were mired $122 million in the red as of Aug. 30, presenting a "real public crisis."

Leading rail executives, in prepared statements, blamed "artificial handicaps" imposed by government, including what one called "constructive fraud" by some states in property tax practices.

Presidents of five major roads and the head of a regional railroad group spelled out industry problems, and recommended solutions, at a conference of 16 state governors and their representatives.

Later in the day, eight spokesmen for railroad labor organizations were slated to advance their views—some conflicting with management, especially on the question of mergers.

The session was called by Gov. Wesley Powell of New Hampshire, chairman of the National Governors' Conference.

Invited were the governors of New York, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont and West Virginia.

CD Staff Plans For Veterans Day Parade

Plans were made for a Veterans Day parade Nov. 11 when the local Civil Defense staff met recently.

John Herman, parade marshal, invites local organizations to enter the parade. The line-up already includes five bands, marching units, Girl and Boy Scouts and veteran organizations.

A rally in the Junior High School auditorium will follow the parade. State Rep. Warren J. Bettis will be one of the speakers.

Harry Waller, deputy director of civil defense training, previewed three films to determine which would be placed on the program at the Junior High School. Poster and essay contests on civil defense are being conducted at the schools.

The uses of Conelrad was explained and in its present form it cannot be used in fallout shelters due to the weakness of the signal. The department now has 30 units for emergency use.

Nerr Gaunt, deputy director of CD operations, appointed Charles Malloy as deputy director of auxiliary firemen. He stressed the need for organizing plant protection for local concerns and manufacturers.

A report of his trip to the Civil Defense Training at Battle Creek, Mich., was given by Harmon Zepernick.

An announcement of the complete staff of the local defense organization will be given at a later date.

Literature on survival and plans for building fallout shelters are available from Miss Eleanor Szoka at the Board of Health office in City Hall.

SENTENCED IN DEATH

DiSalle Addresses 2 Canton Groups

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle stopped here Tuesday night and at Uhrichsville earlier on his tour to tell the people of Ohio about the needs of their state.

He addressed the Jackson Democratic Men's Club and the Democratic Women's Club of Canton here and spoke to the Buckeye Club and high school journalists of Tuscarawas County in Uhrichsville.

During both stops the governor, who announced last week that he would not seek re-election next year, told of Ohio's needs in education, highways, mental health, welfare and juvenile training.

He also assailed Republicans in the General Assembly for allegedly shirking their duty in failing to provide the revenue for the increases in appropriations they had approved.

DiSalle broke into tears Tuesday night when Paul M. Perkins,

Stark County Democratic Party chairman, asked the audience of about 400 if he should continue his efforts to start a "draft DiSalle" campaign for governor in 1962. The audience responded with a standing ovation.

In answer to a student journalist at Uhrichsville who asked him if he would oppose Stephen M. Young for the U.S. Senate in 1964, DiSalle said, "I have no plans past 1962."

He said he had "no intention of running against Mr. Young," but added, "This is a 1964 decision that no doubt will be made in 1964."

The governor indicated he may return to private law practice or go into business, teaching, government, travel, lecture or write.

"I probably will do what proves to be the most challenging at the moment," he said.

The word "daisy" is derived from the Anglo-Saxon term and means "day's eye," according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Herbed Chicken

2½-pound frying chicken, ¾ cup pancake mix, ¾ teaspoon crumbled whole thyme, or rosemary leaves, 2 teaspoons salt, ½ teaspoon ground black pepper, ½ cup shortening.

Wash chicken and cut into eke mix, crumbled whole thyme or rosemary leaves, salt and ground black pepper in a large plastic bag.

Place chicken all at once in bag and shake until well-coated.

Melt shortening in a 9 x 13 x 2-inch pan in a preheated hot oven (400 degrees F.). Arrange chicken in pan, skin side down. Bake 30 minutes.

Turn chicken and bake 30 to 40 minutes longer until done.

Potato Pancakes

1 large egg, ½ teaspoon baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, 3 medium-sized potatoes (pared and quartered) 1 medium-sized onion (sliced) 1½ tablespoons flour, 6 tablespoons butter or oil.

Drop the egg, baking powder, salt, potatoes and onion into the blender container; blend until mixture is combined; add flour and blend to combine.

Add a couple tablespoons of the butter to a skillet and heat; brown tablespoonsfuls of the mixture on both sides in the hot butter; add more butter as needed about 2½ dozen small pancakes. Serve at once or keep hot in slow oven or on electric tray.

Use Sauce To Entice Cake

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Nowadays cake mixes often serve as puddings. It takes little time to mix up a package of mix and offer the cake, warm from the oven, with a sauce.

The sauce, made from scratch in your own kitchen, adds that home-prepared touch family and friends are likely to praise.

If you want a change from the usual lemon sauce to top squares of fresh white or yellow cake, try this recipe using frozen pineapple-orange juice and Tokay grapes.

TOKAY SAUCE
1 can (6 ounces) frozen pineapple-orange concentrate, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1½ cups Tokay grapes (halved and seeded).

Reconstitute the pineapple-orange concentrate according to the can directions; measure 1 for another use. In a 1-quart cup; reserve remaining juice saucepan stir together the cornstarch and sugar; gradually stir in the 1 cup pineapple-orange juice.

Cook and stir over medium heat until thickened and clear. Stir in butter until melted. Add grapes and serve warm over white or yellow cake squares or cottage pudding. Makes enough for 6 servings.

Other Ways With Tokays

At snacktime, use Tokays instead of crackers to serve with a spread of sieved blended cream the grapes in a pretty container cheese and blue cheese. Put with a small bowl of the cheese spread beside them. Have small knives on hand so eaters can dab grapes with blobs of cheese. Fill cavities of pear halves with cottage cheese; cover the cheese with halved seeded Tokays, placing the grapes flesh side down. Add salad greens and pass a dressing—French, our cream or mayonnaise.

Add Tokays to a fruit cup of orange sections, pineapple tidbits and slivers of preserved or candied ginger.

pan, paper-side-up. Peel off paper; fit pastry loosely into pan. Trim ½-inch beyond rim of pan. Fold under; flute. Prick thoroughly. Bake 12 to 15 minutes or until light golden brown.

Frosted Cranberries

1 cup fresh cranberries, 1 egg white ¼ cup sugar.

Wash and dry cranberries thoroughly. Beat egg white until slightly foamy. Toss cranberries in beaten egg white. Place on cake rack until partially dry. Toss in sugar until coated. Allow to dry.

What is said to be the world's most ancient theater was unearthed in the Basra El Sham area of Syria.

TO INSTALL WATER LINES
PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Lake County commissioners have given the green light for installing water lines in eastern Painesville Twp. to supply about 200 homes with Painesville City water.

MAN SHOT BY WIFE

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — William Collins, 32, was shot in the stomach by his wife Monday, police said. He was reported in fair condition at a hospital. His wife, Dorothy May, 22, was held at City Prison for investigation.

Coyotes often run down fast game in relays, attaining a 40 mph speed in their pursuits, according to Encyclopedia Britannica.

Cranberry Pie Is Different

GAYNOR MADDOX

How about a change of pace dessert for Thanksgiving dinner? Serve a delicate and beautiful cranberry chiffon pie:

1 9-inch 1-2-3 baked pie crust, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, ¼ cup sugar, 1 cup cranberry juice, ½ teaspoon grated lemon peel, 3 egg whites, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ cup light corn syrup, Frosted cranberries.

Prepare 1-2-3 baked pie shell. Sprinkle gelatin over cranberry juice in a small saucepan. Let stand a few minutes to soften gelatin. Add sugar and stir over very low heat until gelatin and sugar are completely dissolved. Remove from heat. Stir in lemon peel. Chill to unbeaten egg white consistency.

CAUTION: If gelatin mixture becomes too stiff, texture of filling is less smooth and creamy. Add salt to egg whites and beat until stiff but not dry. Slowly add corn syrup, beating until smooth and glossy. Fold chilled gelatin mixture into beaten whites; chill until thick enough to pile up (about ½ hour).

Stir mixture occasionally while chilling for a very smooth filling. Pile lightly into baked 1-2-3 pie crust and chill until ready to serve. This pie keeps so well that it may be made a day ahead and refrigerated overnight. Decorate with frosted cranberries.

1-2-3 Pie Crust
1 cup plus 2 tablespoons unsifted flour, ½ teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup corn oil, 2 tablespoons cold water.

Heat oven to 450 degrees F. (very hot.) To measure flour, dip dry nested measuring cup and measuring spoon into flour; level off with straight-edged spatula. Mix flour and salt in mixing bowl. Blend in corn oil thoroughly with fork. Sprinkle all of water over mixture; mix well with fork. Press dough firmly into ball with hands. If too dry, mix in 1 to 2 tablespoons more oil.

Flatten dough slightly; immediately roll into 12-inch circle between 2 pieces of waxed paper. Wipe table with damp cloth to keep paper from slipping. Peel off top paper; place pastry in

Onions Fill Acorn Squash

Thanksgiving harvest time vegetables should be cooked with interest and imagination. They add color to the great feast, as does this recipe for the dark green-skinned acorn squash, with yellow pulp, filled with glistening small white onions.

Baked Acorn Squash With Savory Onions
(Yield: 6 servings)
3 medium acorn squash, 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine, Salt, Ground black pepper, Savory onions, Ground nutmeg.

Wash squash, cut in half lengthwise and scrape out seeds and stringy portion and discard it. Brush cut portion of squash with melted butter or margarine. Sprinkle each with 1/4 teaspoon salt. Place in a baking pan, cut side down. Pour in boiling water to a depth of 1/4-inch. Bake in a preheated hot oven (400 degrees F.), 30 minutes or until squash is tender when pierced with a fork.

Remove from oven and turn cut side up. Arrange on a serving dish. Sprinkle with a dash of black pepper. Fill centers with Savory Onions. Sprinkle with ground nutmeg. Serve hot.

Savory Onions
(Yield: 6 servings)
1 1/2 pounds small white onions, 1-inch chicken stock or boiling water and 1 chicken bouillon cube, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper, Ground nutmeg.

Put unpeeled onions in boiling water before peeling to make the job easier. Peel and place onions in a saucepan with chicken stock or boiling water and bouillon cube. Boil, uncovered, 5 minutes. Cover and continue cooking 15 minutes or until onions are tender.

Remove from heat and drain. Add butter or margarine and black pepper. Toss lightly to coat each onion with melted butter. Spoon into squash cavities. Garnish with ground nutmeg.

Mashed Rutabagas And Carrots
(Yield: 8 servings)
2 1/2 cups mashed cooked rutabagas, 2 1/2 cups mashed cooked carrots, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 teaspoons sugar, 2 ground black pepper, 3 tablespoons minced onion, 1 1/2 teaspoon fresh lemon juice, 1/4 cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese.

Combine mashed rutabagas, carrots, butter or margarine, sugar, salt, black pepper, onion and lemon juice. Mix until fluffy. Pile in a 1-quart buttered casserole or a 9-inch pie plate. Sprinkle with grated cheese. Place under the broiler to melt cheese. Serve hot.

Shepherd's Pie
1/4 cup finely chopped onion, 1 teaspoon butter or margarine, 3 1/2 to 4 cups diced leftover roast lamb, 1 1/2 to 2 cups cooked diced carrots, 1 package (10 ounces) frozen peas, 1 cup chicken bouillon, Salt and pepper, 1 envelope instant potato flakes. (for making 4 servings of mashed potatoes), 1 egg.

In a small skillet cook the onion lightly in the butter; turn into a 2-quart casserole and mix with the lamb and carrots. Break up frozen peas and mix in with the bouillon.

Add salt and pepper to taste. Make up potatoes according to package directions; beat egg until thick and ivory-colored and fold into potatoes.

Spread potatoes over meat and vegetables. Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven 40 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Note: The bouillon is not supposed to thicken during the baking.

Quick Potato Salad
(Yield: 6 servings)
1 quart diced hot cooked potatoes, 1 raw egg, unbeaten, 2 tablespoons salad oil, 1 tablespoon cider vinegar, 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder, 1/2 cup diced onion, 1 tablespoon boiling water, 2 cups diced celery, 1/2 cup diced green pepper, Radishes, Fresh tomatoes, sliced or quartered.

Place potatoes in a mixing bowl. Make a well in the center into which break an egg. Add oil, vinegar, lemon juice, salt, black pepper, garlic powder, onion and boiling water.

Toss lightly to mix, but do not over mix. Chill 2 to 3 hours. Add celery and green pepper just before serving. Garnish with radishes and sliced fresh tomato.

Minnesota Faces Michigan Hurdle In Big Ten Title Bid

Injuries Plague Top College Teams

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

If anyone mentioned Sandy Stephens' name a year ago, it was an effort trying to place him as the quarterback of the national champion Minnesota Gophers. They just weren't a team of back-field stars.

It's different this year. The Gophers are right in the middle of the fight for a second successive Big Ten title, and the 6-foot Stephens is the man at the helm.

After a 6-0 opening loss to Missouri, Stephens has come back to senior from Uniontown, Pa., is not an outstanding passer. He completed only 35.3 per cent a year ago, and until a torrid 7-for-12 against Illinois, missed 35 of 42 in the three preceding 1961 games.

Stephens may have to go it alone this week against Michigan. Jerry Pelletier, who has spelled him on defense, is out with a shoulder separation and Stephens may have to play both ways.

Princeton's Dick Coleman is worried about an aerial attack—his own. Noting his team completed only 2 of 13 passes for 14 yards in a 15-0 loss to Colgate last week, he remarked, "We've got to work on throwing under pressure" as he drilled for Cornell.

Penn won't have No. 1 tailback John Owens for its game against Rutgers this week and Mickey Brown will probably take his place. Oklahoma put Paul Lea into the first-string left halfback post and had ends John Porterfield and Dale Perini in scrimmage for the first time in nearly two weeks.

Maryland will still be without backs Dennis Condie and Bob Burton against South Carolina while the Citadel, atop the Southern Conference, may miss half-back Eddie Taylor for its non-league clash against Xavier.

Hoover Goes To Tailback
Iowa State Coach Clay Stapleton moved fullback Dave Hoover to tailback on the alternate unit for Ozzie Clay, who is out for the year with a knee injury. At Penn State, Don Jonas, restricted by a dislocated collarbone, will be limited to nothing but extra points and field goals for four weeks.

Kansas may lose its two top tackles, Stan Kirshman and Dick Davis, and end Mike Dear, with various ailments, for this week's game against Oklahoma State while Northwestern's leading ground gainer, Bill Swingle, is not expected to play against Notre Dame because of a lame knee.

Neves Ties California Turf Record

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP)—The California turf record of a jockey winning six races on one program was equaled at Bay Meadows Tuesday by Ralph Neves, a veteran of 27 years in the saddle.

The "pepper pot" of Portuguese descent thus became the first rider to take six horses to the winner's circle. He shares a mark held by Johnny Adams, Basil James, Johnny Longden and Willie Harman.

Neves, 43, has a career total of 3,578 winners which places him sixth on the list of winningest jockeys. He is leading the current Bay Meadows meeting, now in its final week, with 40 winners in 147 starts.

take an active hand in every touchdown—eight in all—that the Gophers have scored in winning three consecutive games.

Green Bay Top Offensive Team In NFL

NEW YORK (AP)—The Green Bay Packers have taken over as the No. 1 offensive team in the National Football League, breaking the San Francisco 49ers' hold on the league's two major statistical departments.

The bulk of the credit must go to George Halas, owner and coach of the Chicago Bears, his coaching staff, and the players who carried out the assignments in the Bears' 31-0 victory over San Francisco Sunday.

While Chicago's 5-2-4 defense was limiting the 49ers to only 132 yards gained, the Packers were piling it up against Minnesota in a 33-7 rout and took over the top spot in total offense with 2,156 gained to 2,142 for San Francisco, league statistics showed today.

The 49ers, despite their overwhelming loss, remained the top defensive club with 1,374 yards given up to 1,435 for the runner-up St. Louis Cardinals. The Cards have been the toughest team to run against, allowing a low of 443 yards in six games.

The Cleveland Browns are fifth in offense with 1,946 yards gained, 875 in rushing and 1,071 in passing. They are sixth in defense with 1,673 yards given up, 641 in rushing and 1,037 in passing.

Winner Of Five Ohio Tennis Titles Retires

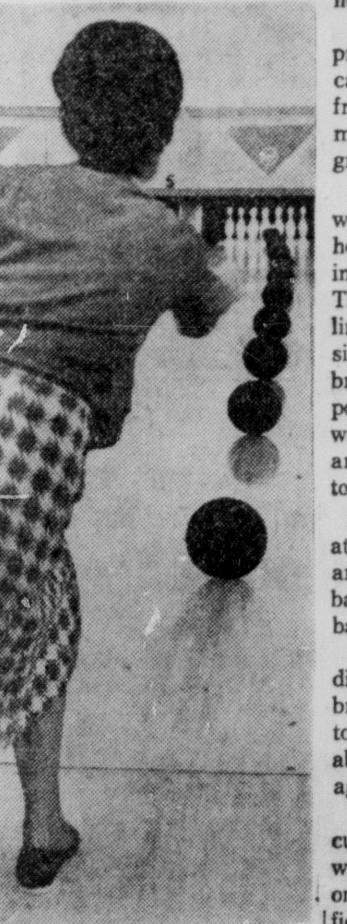

CLEVELAND (AP)—A persistent backache and a yen to brush up on his golf has caused Kirk Reid, 63, to retire from active tennis after a 55-year span in which he was Ohio singles champion five times, and at one time ranked third in the nation. Reid was state singles champ five times from 1920 through 1927.

13-Hook

By SHARON KAY RITCHIE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

After the beginner has mastered

the straight ball the bowler should advance to the hook.

This actually is a ball that starts out straight enough, but breaks sharply into a curve as it nears the pins.

The hook is the mainstay roll of practically every good bowler. Because it stays with the pins a fraction of a second longer, it mixes them better, with resultant greater pinfall.

Dick Weber, leading money winner of the PBA tour, says the hook should be started by standing with the arms at the sides. The wrist should be in a straight line with the arm on the action side. In the delivery, the arm is brought up into a shake hands position, without snapping the wrist. The motion of bringing the arm up this way imparts a spin to the ball that provides the hook.

The thumb generally is pointed at about 10 o'clock on the imaginary clock dial. It must leave the ball ahead of the fingers or the ball will not hook.

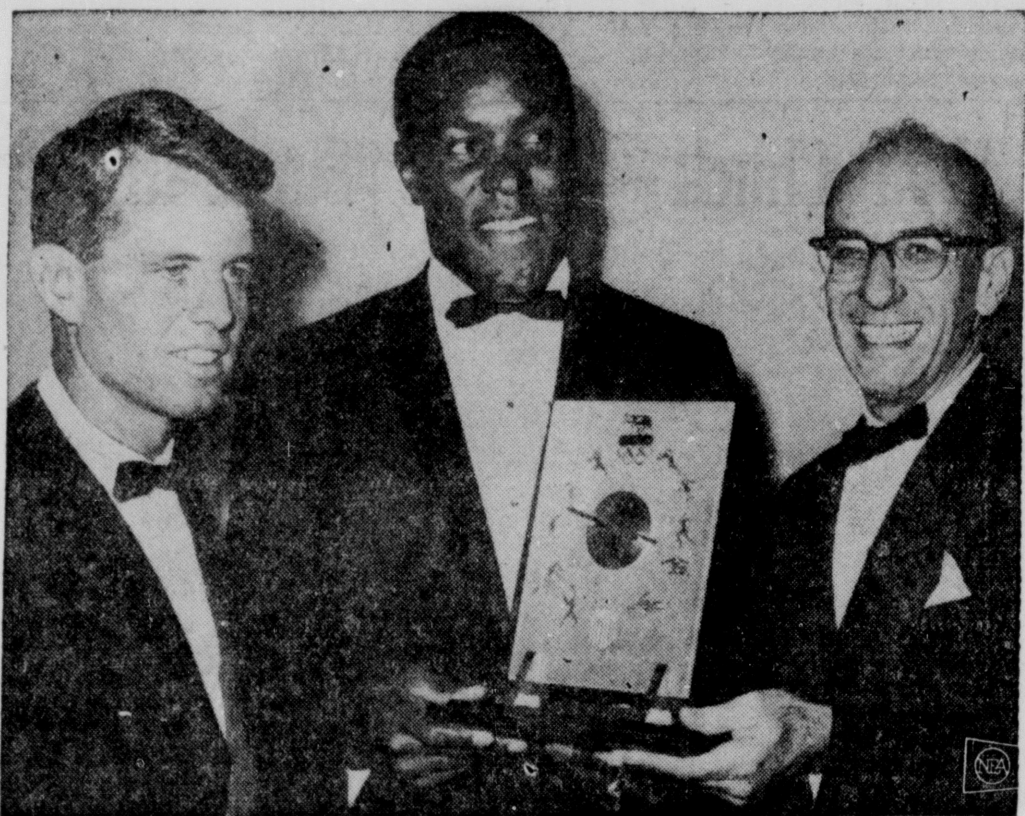

The curve, which starts in one direction and winds up in a wide breaking arc in the other, is altogether too difficult and unreliable to be employed by the average good bowler, so skip it.

When you get ready to use the curve on special occasions, you will be way up among the big ones—and somebody better qualified than I can tell you about it.

NEXT: Rhythm.

Area Grid Roundup

Poland, East Palestine Vie In Tri-County Tilt

By LYNN BROWNE
News Sports Writer

East Palestine and Poland, last year's Tri-County League co-champs, meet Saturday at Poland with the hosts having a good chance of nudging East Palestine out of contention for loop honors for the first time in the last six years.

Poland currently leads the league with a 5-0 loop record and a 6-0 season mark, while East Palestine stands 3-1 in the league and holds an unimpressive 4-3 season record.

The big game in the league should come next Friday when Poland travels to Minerva to battle the undefeated, untied Minerva Lions. Minerva has a 4-0 league record and is undefeated in seven season games. The Lions should have little trouble getting past winless Sebring Friday as they make a strong bid for their first loop crown since sharing the honor with Lisbon in 1951.

Ike Farrah's Leetonia Bears will entertain the Blue Devils of Lisbon Friday in an attempt to register their first league win. Lisbon has won one loop fray, downing Sebring 24-0.

In the only other Tri-County league game, Louisville will play host to the Columbiana Clippers. The Clippers are currently tied for third place with East Palestine.

Although no Turnpike Conference games are slated, all six teams in that league will see action against non-loop foes with the West Branch-Beaver Local tilt highlighting the schedule.

West Branch's Warriors bowed to North Canton 32-6 in their season opener but went on to win their next six games. Their last win was a 34-0 rout over Jackson-Milton. Beaver Local tied Leetonia 14-14 in its opener, won the next five, but lost to Carrollton 14-8 last week. West Branch trounced the Beavers 38-0 last year to snap a seven game win streak.

Action involving other Turnpike Conference teams includes Warren St. Mary's entertaining Ashtabula St. Johns, Salineville at United Local, Fitch at Canfield, Greenford at Springfield Local and Jackson-Milton at Lowellville. The Fitch-Canfield clash will take place Friday with the other games to be played Saturday.

Two games influencing Inter-County League standings are scheduled for Saturday. In these tilts McDonald will be at North Lima and Western Reserve will be at Crestview.

Independent clashes include Boardman at Salem, Jefferson Union at Wellsville and Bellaire St. Johns at East Liverpool.

Colts' Myhra Shines As Goal Kicker

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

If Cleveland's Lou Groza is "The Toe" then Baltimore's Steve Myhra must be "The Clutch." The Colts have won only three National Football League games this season and Myhra has won all three with field goals in the closing minutes.

Myhra, a 6-foot-1, 240-pounder from the Red River Valley of North Dakota, credits Bobby Boyd, the ball holder, with his sudden success.

"We work better as a unit than the other fellows who worked with me before," said Myhra today in Baltimore. "George Shaw, Ray Brown and Johnny Sample used to hold at various times. But Boyd makes the difference. The kicker gets the credit or blame when it usually is because of a difference of three or four inches in where the ball was placed."

Whatever the reason, Myhra at 27, is enjoying his finest year. He has kicked 8 of 13 field goals or 61 per cent of his attempts in only six games. Last year he made 9 of 19, his personal high. His career record is 31 of 65.

According to Myhra the toughest club on field goal kickers is the Chicago Bears, the team the Colts play Sunday at Baltimore. "They load seven or eight men on one side and come at you," he said.

Other NFL games Sunday will find the Green Bay Packers, now leaders of the Western Division, playing the Minnesota Vikings at Milwaukee. New York, coleader in the Eastern half, will play Dallas at Yankee Stadium, and Philadelphia, which shares the lead with the Giants, plays winless Washington on the road. The San Francisco 49ers will try to reassemble their shotgun charges at Pittsburgh. Cleveland will play at St. Louis and Detroit at Los Angeles.

OSU Has No QB Problems

Hayes Has Choice Of Three Starters

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — All football coaches must wish they could have Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes' current dilemma—choosing a starter from between three nearly equal quarterbacks.

Last spring the quarterback spot appeared to be Hayes' biggest problem. Early in the fall Bill Mrukowski, 6-foot junior from Elyria, appeared to take command. Mrukowski, however, was injured in practice prior to the Illinois game, and John Mumme, a state high school scoring champion while at Painesville, switched from fullback to the signal calling position.

Now a third candidate appears to be taking the spotlight — Joe Sparma, 6-foot-2 sophomore from Massillon.

Hayes had Sparma running the first team through most of the practice session Tuesday and was pleased with what he saw.

Mumme is still nursing a bruised hip but is expected to be ready for Saturday's game with Wisconsin.

Which of the three will start at quarterback? Hayes says he doesn't know.

Bob Harrison Leads Pro-Am Golf Tourney

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — An 8-under-par 64 by Bob Harrison of Pacific Palisades, Calif., has placed him in 11th place in the $19,500 Sahara Pro-Am Golf Tournament.

Harrison fired an eagle and seven birdies Tuesday for two 32s over the Las Vegas municipal course, par for which is 72. Half the field played at the Paradise Valley Country Club course. The players switched courses today.

Tied for second place are Juan Rodriguez of Forado Beach, Puerto Rico, and Jerry Steelsmith of Glendale, Calif., with 65s. Al Bolding of Toronto and Billy Maxwell of Dallas had 66s.

Doug Sanders was 6-over-par for 16 holes when darkness stopped him. He will play off his first round this morning.

Bob Shave Jr. of Willoughby, Ohio, fired a 4-under-par 34-34-68 in the first round to tie with seven others for ninth place.

Cleveland's Renfro May Not Play In St. Louis Tilt

CLEVELAND (AP) — Leon Clarke and Charley Ferguson are being groomed as flankers in the event the Cleveland Browns' regular flanker, Ray Renfro, is not able to play against St. Louis Sunday.

Renfro suffered a bruised thigh against Pittsburgh last Sunday. Clarke played flanker last season, so the adjustment should be easy.

Five St. Louis players will miss Sunday's game, but the return of John David Crow, the brilliant back who broke an ankle in the exhibition season, gives the Cardinals added running power.

Cleveland Coach Paul Brown probably will have to wait and see what the weather conditions will be in St. Louis Sunday before he'll know who the Cards' quarterback will be. Sam Etcheverry was at quarterback in the teams' first meeting, which Cleveland won 20-17 on Lou Groza's field goal near the end of the game.

If the field is fast, Ivy probably will go with Ralph Guglielmi, who is a good runner. Guglielmi pitched two touchdown passes in St. Louis' 24-0 victory over Washington last Sunday.

The Milwaukee Braves figure they lost a good chance for the 1961 National League pennant by losing 15 of 22 games to Cincinnati.

NCAA Tightens Play Regulations

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association aimed today to tighten the regulations on college players to the extent that they will be completely shielded from outside influences.

The powerful 18-man council of the NCAA—a body which rarely, if ever, is questioned by the organization, Tuesday adopted four amendments to NCAA rules which would tighten the holds on college players.

The four amendments will be presented with the council's backing at the annual NCAA convention in Chicago on Jan. 11-13. They are almost certain to be passed.

The amendments are:

1. The barring of all outside basketball competition, including the summer leagues.

"Originally," said Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, "the recommendation was to bar the players from summer competition. But the council heard a report from the gambling committee which recommended all outside competition, and decided to adopt it."

2. A pre-registration rule that bars an athlete from engaging in varsity competition until he has been in residence in a college two years if he decides to transfer after registering at an institution.

"We have been concerned with athletes transferring from junior colleges and starting varsity competition," said Byers.

3. Transfer rule that would require an athlete to be in residence in the school to which he transfers for one year before he can engage in varsity competition.

4. A recommendation that an athlete suspended from a college for disciplinary or academic reasons must complete two years of satisfactory work to be eligible for varsity competition in another school. The present rule is one year.

Baseball Co., Trust Fund Control Reds

CINCINNATI (AP) — Some 95 per cent of the stock of the Cincinnati Reds now belongs to either the Cincinnati Baseball Club Co. or a trust fund set up by the late Powell Crosley Jr., long-time Reds president.

The baseball club said Tuesday it bought 1,064 shares from James M. Hutton Jr., local stock broker, for substantially the same price as Hutton paid for them a month ago. Hutton paid $798,000 for the stock, which he bought from former Reds General Manager Gabe Paul and from the Arthur T. Krebs family and the Charles McDonald estate.

The 1,064 shares amount to 17.73 per cent of the National League champions' stock.

General Manager Bill DeWitt said the remaining stock—about 250 shares—belongs to 35 or 40 individuals.

Robinson Cops NL Crown

Mantle Captures AL Slugging Title

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees, who took a back seat to teammate Roger Maris in the 1961 home run race, captured the American League slugging crown for the third time with a .687 percentage.

Cincinnati's Frank Robinson won the National League slugging title for the second straight season with a .613 average, figures compiled by The Associated Press revealed today.

A year ago Mantle accumulated the most total bases in the junior circuit, but Maris wound up the slugging leader at .581. This season it was the reverse, Maris leading in total bases and Mantle topping the sluggers.

Mantle, whose 54 home runs were second best to Maris' record of 61, accounted for 353 total bases in 514 at bats. Among his 163 hits were 16 doubles and 6 triples. The 30-year-old switch-hitter had previously annexed the slugging crown in 1955 with .611 and 1956 with .705.

Robinson, whose productive bat was instrumental in the Reds' winning the National League pennant, collected 334 total bases in 545 trips. The wiry right-handed swinger's extra-base output included 33 doubles, 7 triples and 37 homers among his 176 hits.

The 26-year-old outfielder was the slugging champion in 1960 with a .595 mark, becoming the first Cincinnati player to win the title since Edd Roush accomplished the feat in 1918.

HOLD BEAGLE TRIALS

The Mahoning-Trumbull Beagle Club will hold its annual club championship stakes at the club ground in Ellsworth Sunday. Competition will be in both the 13-inch and 15-inch class, with a competitive brace to determine the absolute winner. Trophies will be awarded for all place hounds, and will be presented at the group's annual banquet in February. All registered beagles in the area are eligible for competition Sunday.

In four trips to the post in The Garden State, jockey Eric Guerin won with Summer Tan in 1955, was second with Career Boy in 1956, third with Rose Trellis in 1957 and third with Sword Dancer in 1958.

Texas Gets Nod Over Rice

Ohio State, MSU Picked Winners

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — There's nothing like money in the bank — unless it is in your pocket. And a $1 bet on each of the 57 games a week ago would have netted you $31 on the basis of 44 correct picks and 13 losses.

With no assurance that this week's choices will be as profitable.

Michigan State over Indiana: It is the Spartans homecoming game and that should be enough to keep top-ranked Michigan State alert even though the Hoosiers will be at full strength for the first time in a month.

Mississippi over Vanderbilt: Old Miss has permitted only 13 points in five games while piling up 157. Ohio State over Wisconsin: One of these Saturday's Ron Miller, the Badger tosser, is going to get hot and embarrass everyone but doubt it will happen at the expense of the Buckeyes. You can see for yourself on TV.

Texas over Rice: Four reasons for this pick—Jerry Cook, Jimmy Saxton, Ray Poage and Tommy Ford.

Alabama over Houston: But the Crimson Tide will have more trouble than in last week's 34-3 rout with Tennessee.

Iowa over Purdue: The Hawkeyes' new passing combine of Matt Szykowsky to Cloyd Webb will prevail in a squeaker.

Louisiana State over Florida: The Bengals keep building for that climactic struggle next week with Mississippi.

Notre Dame over Northwestern: The Irish feel they should have beaten Michigan State last week and will take it out on Northwestern.

Elsewhere in other major games:

Georgia Tech over Tulane, Colorado over Oklahoma, Penn State over California, Missouri over Nebraska, Pittsburgh over Navy, Minnesota over Michigan, Maryland over South Carolina, Southern California over Illinois, Utah State over Idaho.

North Texas State over Cincinnati, Detroit over Dayton, Iowa State over Kansas State, Xavier over the Citadel, Wichita over Tulsa.

OUT OF DOORS with Field &amp; Stream

By RUFUS LIDE

Opening day of duck season brought forth about the same number of hunters as in previous years and a surprising number of ducks, considering the fact that the Canadian pot holes, the breeding grounds for certain waterfowl, have been reduced from six million to two million. Blue wing and green wing teal, along with baldpates and ruddy ducks, were the most prominent among the flight ducks.

Many mallards, both greenhead and blacks, plus numerous wood ducks, were locally hatched and bred in Columbiana County and the general local area each year. These native ducks had big plump breasts and the lucky nimrods that bagged the limit of two took home the best eating.

As usual, trigger happy hunters with poor judgment of distance carried on their sky-dusting with the usual percentage take of about 1 duck for 175 shells fired, the equivalent of one duck for five boxes of shells. Even so, they had fun and at least saw something to shoot at.

AN EAST LIVERPOOL teenager said he knocked the feathers out of a Canadian goose. I saw seven geese grazing in "Shorty" Hanna's wheat field in Salem Township at 9 a.m. before the season opened at noon. At 6:40 p.m. after shooting hours, I saw them grazing in the same wheat field, all seven of them, so they managed to escape the hunters' guns. Two other flocks were reported in the Lake Guilford area, one of 13 and another of three, but I did not see nor hear of anyone taking home a goose.

There is no shortage of geese, generally speaking, although we are only in the fringe area of the Mississippi flyway. One thing is for sure, we are in the center of the redwing blackbird flyway, along with thousands of starlings. I hope to see an open season on both these birds, even if it may not become a popular sport. Think how many could be brought down by shooting into the flock with a 10 gauge gun loaded with No. 10 shot. I've been told that they make a good pie. The law reads they are protected from killing unless doing the property owner damage.

TWO BOYS, Lynn Carver and Dwane Brotherton, living in Smith Township, Mahoning County, brought me a "strange bird" they picked up crippled on 12th St. near the intersection of Midtown Road, apparently stunned after being hit by a motor vehicle. They thought it was some kind of a hawk, when actually it was a ruffed grouse. I never heard of any grouse in Mahoning County with the exception of a few in a small segment of the county off Egypt Road just north of Salem. I have hunted for years in Smith Township for rabbits, pheasants and squirrels but I never flushed a grouse. If anyone else knows of grouse in Mahoning County, I would like to hear about it. Grouse season opened Oct. 16 and runs through Feb. 24, 1962 inclusive. The bag limit is three with not more than six in possession. They are excellent eating.

MSU's Saines Selected 'Back of Week' In AP Poll

George Saines, of Michigan State, the shining star of the game of the week, was named today the Back of the Week in The Associated Press poll.

A defensive stalwart, the 20-year-old fullback broke loose in the second half to rip apart Notre Dame's defenses and lead the top-ranking Spartans to a 17-7 victory over the sixth-ranking Irish.

The quick-striking, 186-pound junior, the campus champ in dancing "the Twist," showed his shaky hips to the Irish defenders in reeling off scoring runs of 24 and 25 yards within 2 minutes and 46 seconds. He streaked 26 yards in the final quarter to help set up the insurance field goal. In all he carried 14 times for 142 yards, a sterling show against a team with a rock-ribbed defense.

Called "the complete player," by Coach Duffy Daugherty, Saines was all of that in unbeaten Michigan State's fourth victory. He is from Canton, Ohio.

Saines had a fine array of contenders behind him in Matt Szykowsky of Iowa; Eddie Wilson of Arizona; Jim Parker of Clemson; Jerry Gross of Detroit; Sandy Stephens of Minnesota; Dick Drummond of Gerge Washington, and Pat Trammell of Alabama, among others.
